

MACHINE WAS MADE IN CHICAGO

The Electrical Apparatus
Used in Infernal Machine on Umbria
Bought There.

JEAN ROUSSEAU

The Noted Anarchist of Hay
Market Riot Days,
Is Said To Be
the Maker.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Chicago, Ill., May 15.—Another clue which confirms the belief of the police that the infernal machine meant to blow up the Umbria was made in Chicago. The batteries used were bought of a local electric supply house.

Probably Rousseau
The description tallies with the one the police have of Rousseau the anarchist who was in Chicago during the Haymarket riots and it also appears he has an accomplice who worked with him.

Bad Record
The criminal is now identified as Jean Rousseau who made the bombs for the Reds during the Haymarket riots but who has been away from Chicago for some time and his being here was not known even to anarchist leaders in the city.

COURT ENJOINS WOMAN;
SHE MUST NOT GOSSIP

Peculiar Order by Omaha Judge to Prevent Woman From Talking About Neighbors.

Omaha, Neb., May 15.—The limit in injunctions was reached when Judge Baxter of the district court at Omaha enjoined a woman from talking to her neighbors. The neighbors are now wondering what the penalty will be when the injunction is disobeyed, as some of them say it will be.

Mrs. L. Oliphant Dodge, owner of a large apartment house, applied to the court for an order restraining a Mrs.
Berge from gossiping about her to her tenants, saying that through her gos-sipy ways a number of them had threatened to leave the building.
The court ordered Mrs. Berge not to enter the apartment house, nor to stop in front of the building to gossip, and not to gossip to or about any one living in those apartments.

WOMEN LOSE FEDERAL PLACES

Civil Service Bars Them From Longer
Terms as Immigrant Inspectors.

Washington, May 15.—Because their names were not on the civil service lists the women immigration inspectors appointed three months ago at New York have lost their places. The secretary of the treasury sent the following telegram to the commissioner of immigration at New York:

"You will issue to the women inspectors of immigrants the following notice: Your name not appearing on the eligible list of the civil service commission, you cannot be reemployed without executive order. No such order having been made and your term of service having expired under your temporary appointment said services are hereby discontinued."

WANT POSTAL SALARIES EQUAL

Carriers Urge Payne to Favor Bill Affecting Their Wages.

Peoria, Ill., May 15.—The Illinois letter carriers in convention unanimously adopted resolutions asking the postmaster general to favor the bill in congress equalizing the salaries of carriers in all first and second class cities. The convention also favored the retirement bill, which provides for the payment of a small sum by active carriers annually, the same to be set aside for a pension for them when they become old. The carriers elected officers as follows: President, F. M. McCann, Rockford; vice president, C. L. Farrington, Peoria; secretary, M. T. Flinn, Bloomington; treasurer, Charles Koch, Rock Island; ser-

Streets of New York.

New York, May 15.—Mayor Low has stopped the preaching of mormonism in the street of New York. Several months ago a number of mormons obtained permits for street preaching. The elders were not known as mormons when they obtained the the mayor against the preaching of mormonism in the streets. The permits were revoked and no more will be issued.

CREATES SCENE
IN CITY TEMPLE

Dr. Campbell Announces His Stand on the New Educational Bill.

London, May 15.—There was a remarkable scene in the City Temple at the mid-day service today, when the pastor, Rev. R. J. Campbell, announced his adhesion to the "passive resistance" movement against the new education bill. When Dr. Campbell, who may be regarded as the head of the non-conformists in this country and as voicing the determination of the nonconformists, said he would tender payment of the portion of the rates which was not devoted to sectarian purposes, but added the collector would have to seize his hall clock and other chattels for the balance, the audience, numbering about 3,000 persons, stood up and cheered for several minutes. The pastor added that he had heard that Colonial Secretary Chamberlain was likely to advocate the imprisonment of those who participated in the "passive resistance" movement, but he believed that if Mr. Chamberlain imprisoned him his days as a colonial secretary would be numbered, for nonconformity represented half the religious life of England.

he received in the Church of St. Phillip de Roule today. The president was not present but Mme. Loubet of the papers seek to attach signifiplying that it was in connection with the suppression of the religious orders.

The German ships fired a salute of the land batteries and the French flagship Massena. The German squadron presented a formidable appearance, being made up of seven battle ships and six cruisers. The commanders of the fleets exchanged

FRIARS AT WAR
IN THE BRAZILS

Excommunication of an Abbott Leads to Serious Rioting at San Benitos.

Rio Janeiro, May 15.—The conflict caused by the refusal of the abbot of San Benitos convent to allow entrance of foreign friars who came to assist at a meeting of the order has resulted in a serious dispute. At a meeting of friars, it was resolved, with the archbishop's support, to excommunicate the abbot of St. Beni-tos. The friars elected as his successor Father Domingo Transfigura-cao. The federal judge ordered the abbot to leave San Benitos, believing forces might be needed. Father Transfiguracao went to the monastery with the chief of police and a squadron of cavalry. Father Juan Mercedes, the excommunicated abbot, admitted the new abbot and acknowledged his title to succeed him.
It was thought this had ended the trouble, but the followers of Father Mercedes protested, a mob was formed and the foreign friars were forced to seek asylum in the archbishop's palace. Troops were called and they entered San Benitos with fixed bayonets and drove out Father Mercedes' friends. The foreign friars returned and again took possession.

KNOX TO EXPEDITE
HEARING ON MERGER

Attorney General Will File a Motion to Advance Northern Securities Appeal in Supreme Court.

Washington, May 15.—Authoritative announcement has been made of the intention of the attorney general to enter a motion in the United States supreme court next Monday to advance the hearing in the Northern Securities Company case, the appeal in which was docketed recently in that court.

It is altogether probable that the court will grant the motion, but it is not likely that the court will take action on the motion before the sitting on June 1, when the court will be in session for the last time during the present term. Hence there is no possibility of the argument of the case before the court reconvenes on Oct. 12. As assigned cases are never heard during the first week of a term, the earliest probable date for the hearing is Oct. 19. The vast importance of the case will be given as the attorney general's reason for asking the court to expedite it.

GOVERNMENT IS TESTING SOIL

EXPERIMENTAL STATION BEING OPERATED NEAR CITY

ON THE HUGUNIN FARM

An Interesting Account of the Work Being Done by the Bureau of Soils.

On the Hugunin farm near the city the United States department of agriculture, is carrying on an extensive experiment in soil analysis. The investigations in this branch of agriculture are under the management of the bureau of soils. Professor King, formerly at the Madison experiment station, well known in Wisconsin, has general charge of this work at Washington and is chief of this division. The primary object of the work is to determine what effect varying management has on different types of soil.

The Plan.
The work was started in a more limited way, by Professor King last year. The plan is as follows: First there is a soil survey. Parties of two men each are given certain areas of the country, with blank maps on which different characteristics of the soil are to be marked. They examine the soil to the depth of 3 feet. Then parties of three each are sent to the districts where the soil has been found to have some marked characteristic, to experiment as to its physical and chemical properties under different management. They start out just before the growing season begins and stay till late in the fall. Three other parties in the same division are now carrying on exactly the same work, as is being done on the Hugunin farm.

One is at Goldboro, North Carolina, another at Lancaster, Pa. and the third is near Marlborough, Maryland. Each party makes out two acres on two different types of soil, making four acres in each experiment. This land they divide into plots, carefully marked. On these different plots they spread different amounts of manure, or some commercial fertilizer, and leave other plots bare.

Corn and Potatoes.
Corn and potatoes are then planted in this ground. Throughout the spring and fall samples are taken continually of the soil at different depths from 1 to 4 feet. These samples by means of delicate apparatus are tested to determine the amount of moisture they contain and the amount of soluble salts or the amount of nourishment that can be made use of by the plant. They can determine the amount of phosphorus, nitrates, silicates, carbonates, lime, magnesia and potash that is present in the earth. Already 150 soil samples have been taken and they will average about 70 a week. In the later plant tests the "colometric method" is used. All the seed planted in one season is procured, when possible, from the same locality.

Testing Now.
The party here are now testing samples of soil, at the depth of 4 feet, for salts and water. Samples are taken by means of a steel tube, one end having a cutting edge, this is driven into the ground to the desired depth then removed and the soil taken from it. It is something on the principle of the butter tester.

The soil survey designated the soil in one locality as "The Janesville Loam." It is a clay loam down to 16 or 18 inches then grading into fine clay. The other type of soil found on the same farm the survey called "Mama Loam." It is a sandy loam from 3 to 4 feet deep then grading from coarse sand to gravel.

Field Laboratory.
The experimenting crew carry a complete field laboratory with them but as some of the tests cannot be done here all samples are forwarded to Washington.

The gentlemen who are conducting this work in Rock county are: Mr. A. H. Snyder, assistant chemist at Washington, a graduate of the agricultural course at Ohio university; Mr. F. D. Stevens, Michigan university and Mr. N. S. Lyman, a Wisconsin man. They have been at work here since March 26th, a will continue till the later part of October, when they return to Washington and work on their report till the following spring. They have very accurate instruments for their work—to analyze soil and keep a complete atmospheric and meteorological record.

Their Instruments.
Among others, self-recording thermometers that are kept continually a foot deep in the ground, thus securing the natural temperature in the earth for an entire season. Also instruments for recording automatically the amount of rainfall and the evaporation of moisture from the ground—the same as takes place in the field. Many small amounts must be weighed accurately, one spring balance weighs to the five-thousandth of a pound.

Washington Buildings.
Mr. Snyder in speaking of the prevailing idea of the relative insignificance of the agricultural department at Washington, said: "The main building is a large structure, while the number of adjoining buildings, used for offices, cover much ground." In the soil survey division alone over fifty men are at work drawing maps, testing soils and the routine work of the bureau.

The Hugunins.
The Hugunin farm has three farms, altogether between five and six hundred acres, with well kept houses, barns and lawns. Mr. John Hugunin, on whose farm the government work is being carried on, owns about two hundred acres. He has a herd of twenty-five grade Holstein cattle, Duroc Jersey hogs and Percheron horses. Mr. Hugunin sells milk to city retailers.

James Casey, employed at Nelson's livery has gone up the river on a fishing trip for a few days.

Notes Concerning the Local Yards and Items Along the Main Line.

The report that the Great Northern has opened an office in Chicago to hire men to handle its trains has been sustained. It is understood that the road is preparing to open a similar one in Duluth and New York.

Lines of the Transcontinental Passenger association has abandoned the idea that under the Elkins law they cannot give half-rates to travelling of clerks of the army and navy and their families, and to clergymen.

The Great Northern will construct a short line from Nashua, on the western Mesaba, to Diamond iron mine, twelve miles west. The road will ultimately be extended to Grand Rapids, Wis.

Charges against the Nickel Plate for violating the law by issuing indiscriminately half rate tickets, are being investigated by several of the eastern road presidents.

The Soo net earnings for March are reported as $278,492, as against $207,734 for last year.

I. Hagar reported today for work at the North-Western yards, after being on the sick list for over a week.

E. J. Grull, fireman on the North-Western, came to Janesville for a day yesterday from Watertown.

Bishop Nicholson passed through here today en route to Milwaukee.

The new board of managers of the Delaware & Hudson company yesterday elected David Wilcox, president. Mr. Oliphant was elected chairman of the executive committee, and Mr. Wilcox's place as vice president was filled by the election of Alexander E. Orr.

A new limited train running between Chicago and Buffalo will go into service on the Erie lines June 11. The Pullman company is putting the finishing touches to the equipment, especially ordered for this service. The coaches will be equal to any which have been manufactured.

The joint answer of the Pennsylvania company and the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway to the charges of unjust and discriminatory freight rates, alleged by William Wrigley, Jr. & Co., were filed with the interstate commerce commission today. The answer while admitting advances in an amendment to the "Southern classification," denies that they are unjust or discriminatory, and asserts that they were made to conform to the rule prevailing in other territories. The roads allege that under the new advances articles of the first class are placed on the basis of similar articles north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi, where the "official classification" governs.

STOCK COMPANY AMUSES MANY

Hasting Company Made Good Showing at the Myers Grand Last Evening.

Hearty laughter was elicited by the farce comedy with which the Hasting Stock company opened its three nights' engagement at the Myers Grand. The title of the piece was "A Domestic Blizzard." It sufficed to amuse a good house. In order to make the most of their short stay in the city a matinee performance was given this afternoon of "A Mountain Wolf."

LIGHTNING DOES A LITTLE DAMAGE

Rails of the Interurban Road Make Excellent Conductors for Current.

During the last thunder storm lightning burned out several wires in the sub-station, also a part of the switchboard. Lightning arrestors are fitted at every mile on the line, but they were connected to the rails and when the lightning was especially severe it would go through the rails, back to the power house. Now the arrestor connections have been changed and no further trouble is anticipated.

Joseph Ward.
D. Ryan received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of Joseph Ward, who died Thursday morning at the home of his son, Edward, in Chicago. Mr. Ward was an old and respected resident of Footville. The remains will be brought here Saturday over the North-Western road and taken direct to Mt. Olivet cemetery.

PRESS COMMENT

Milwaukee News: At any rate, Gov. La Follette seems to have more confidence in the legislature than the legislature has shown in the governor.

Racine Journal: It is now felt at Madison that appearances must be kept up and so it is probable that some sort of an ad valorem railroad taxing measure will be passed.

Madison Journal: Gov. La Follette's special messages to the legislature are coming so thick that it will soon be necessary to install the card system to classify them.

Milwaukee News: From the persistence with which he turns out special messages it is inferred that Gov. La Follette still has hopes that the legislature will follow his advice.

MEETING TONIGHT OF ENDEAVORERS

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF SOUTHERN WISCONSIN.

THE PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

Services Will Be Held in Many of the City Churches, and Will Continue Through Sunday.

With a service at the Baptist church at which the principal address will be delivered by Rev. G. E. Farnham, the state president, the fifteenth annual convention of the Southern Wisconsin Christian Endeavor union will open this evening. A large number of delegates from neighboring cities will be in attendance, and by tomorrow afternoon it is expected that over one hundred visitors will be the guests of the local organization.

In Several Churches.
As was shown in the program which has been printed in these columns the sessions will alternate between the Baptist, Congregational, and Presbyterian churches. Morning, afternoon, and evening services will be held until Sunday evening, when the convention will come to a close. At the Sunday morning church service there will be no Christian Endeavor meeting.

Dinner Served Saturday.
Plans have been made for serving dinner at the Congregational church tomorrow noon, at which all the delegates of the convention will assemble. This feature of the entertainment came as an afterthought, and was decided upon at a committee meeting held this week.

MORTGAGED HORSE CAUSE OF TROUBLE

Charles St. John Sold One and Then Found Himself in a Pickle.

Charles St. John of Albany came into contact with the law yesterday when it was discovered that he had sold a mortgaged horse and buggy. The purchasers were Alva Maxfield who secured the horse for $45 and C. T. Wright who paid $35 for the buggy. It was learned that they had stumbled onto legal property when a Green county deputy sheriff and the holder of the mortgage came into the city yesterday afternoon to search for it.

Strong arguments were needed to convince St. John that it was for his interest to return the money which he had received for the horse and buggy, but he finally did so. The purchasers came out a few dollars the losers by this arrangement because of portion of the sum received in payment for the mortgaged goods had been spent.

MOON REGULATES THE RAIN, SAYS AUSTRALIAN SCIENTIST

H. C. Russell, the Government Astronomer, Gives the Result of Researches of 36 Years.

The following mail advices have been received from Australia by the steamship Aoranga, which brought over the largest number of passengers on record. In speaking of the terrible drought still prevailing in Australia, H. C. Russell, the government astronomer of Australia, claims to have made the discovery after long and careful search among astronomical records, that the moon regulates the rain. Astronomers of the different Australian colonies have endorsed Mr. Russell's theory. Mr. Russell says Australia is in for two more years of drought, eight having passed, and in 1905 there will be more rain than Australia wants, and it will continue for nine years, Russell says:

"I speak positively when I say I have found the moon controls the rain. My researches extend for thirty-six years. Briefly when the moon is moving south there is plenty of rain, when it is moving north there are years of drought, so there are alternate wet and dry periods, the wet lasting nine years and the dry ten. So that long beforehand preparations can be made for the coming drought."

Astronomers the world over are invited to investigate Mr. Russell's assertion. In the meantime, the drought situation has become appalling. A severe earthquake has been felt in Warranboon. It was the severest on record. School children became panic stricken, horses and cattle ran amuck. Many roofs were shaken off the houses. A tidal wave succeeded the earthquake.

Milwaukee Sentinel: The case of Gov. La Follette desiring to regulate railroad rates at this time is certainly one of "holloering" before you are hurt. If he really wanted to save the people money he could find plenty of ways to cut down expenses, instead of continually increasing them.

A Remarkable Sale

The Gazette advertising solicitor a few days ago was handed a cake of soap to try by the Badger Drug company, which he reported of remarkable fragrance and purity.

Upon inquiring we were informed that it was the Violet de Parme soap, well known for its purity, and advertised by the large department stores in Chicago at 17c per cake, regular price 25c. Therefore, we were indeed astonished to learn that the Badger Drug company intends to sell this soap next Saturday at 8c per soap at 8c.

Mr. Pfennig of the Badger Drug company states that they intend to celebrate their first anniversary next Saturday, therefore, they will give to each one of their friends and customers one cake of the celebrated cake at 8c.

Don't miss this sale which is for one day only.

NO EXCURSIONS ON THE SABBATH

The Northwestern Road Has Made an Important Decision as to This Matter.

The passenger agents of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad have received notice that the company will not run any Sunday excursions this summer, and it is probable that this will be the continued policy of the road. The trainmen and depot men who have heard the news are thanking their stars that they will have a chance to rest this summer. In speaking of the change F. M. Shively city passenger agent at Milwaukee said:

Will Decline.
"All I can say officially is that I am authorized to decline to name any. We must put on an extra train to Waukesha during the summer, but no ordinary Sunday excursions will be run as heretofore. I have been here seven years, and this is the first time it has not been done."

Sunday Orders.
"The reason? Well, I simply receive orders without explanations, but I can say for my personal opinion that there may be several reasons. The road wants to give its men a rest, and when we run Sunday excursions they must work seven days in passing away."

Passing Away.
"Sunday excursions are passing away on all roads. In five years I doubt if there will be one. It is a mistake to suppose that the roads make money out of them. They might make some money if it were not for the numerous accidents that occur from the large crowds and the overworked condition of the trainmen. One bad accident will cost the profit of several seasons, and I believe the various roads are beginning to look upon Sunday excursions as a losing business. Eastern roads have already discontinued them in many places."

Claim Fast Time: E. Shoemaker tried his Hamiltonian mare, Queen, on a half mile track yesterday. It is claimed by those who held watches that she made the distance in 1:02 1/2.

In Justice Court: Judgment has been rendered F. A. Taylor against E. M. Calkins garnishee of Thomas Flanagan, defendant, Patrick Collins and Joe Donahue, interpleaders. The court found Patrick Collins should receive $157.90; F. A. Taylor, $151.47; and Joe Donahue, the balance, $67.11. The whole of said sum had been paid into said court when action was commenced.

LaGrippe Caused Heart Trouble,

Nervous Prostration and Dyspepsia.

My Friends Know Heart Cure Cured Me.

Mrs. C. O. Hurd, 118 W. Third St., Muscatine, Ia., is well known throughout her section of Iowa as an ardent worker in the M. E. Church. She says: "LaGrippe left me with a severe case of nervous depression and nervous dyspepsia, which soon affected my heart. I suffered from sleeplessness, headache, extreme nervousness and twitching of the muscles. The slightest exertion would cause shortness of breath, a numbness of my body and hot flashes with pain. I will tell you what I am constantly telling my friends—that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me so that all these disagreeable symptoms I had. I may add that for severe pain I have never found anything to equal Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and think the Nerve and Liver Pills are a wonderful stomach remedy."

"Our son was stricken down with heart trouble in his twentieth year. For two months we got no sleep with him at night, so we commenced to use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills. In fact he passed a physical examination since his sickness and is with the Army in the Philippines. I desire to add that Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have certainly been a boon to me. I am frequently troubled with sick and nervous headaches and I have never found anything that would relieve me so quickly and leave me feeling so well thereafter."—Mrs. Alice Moad, Buffalo, Mo.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and warmer tomorrow.

SUBLIME IGNORANCE

The assembly in its anxiety to do the governor's bidding, passed the maximum freight bill, without discussion or investigation. The schedule adopted is the published tariff of June 1892, and it is safe to say that but few men who voted for the measure, knew any thing about the rates. It is simply another case of blind idolatry, where the only knowledge necessary, is the wishes of the man idolized. If this is statesmanship, it should be labelled.

It is among the possibilities that rates have been reduced, to certain points, since the June schedule went into effect. In that event they can be restored if it becomes a law. Conviction is growing in the minds of the people, that the administration is playing to the galleries for political effect. The people who have business with the railroads, are satisfied with the present conditions, and are not afraid to trust them for the future.

The agitator, whether in the industrial or political world, is not usually a tax payer, and if he possesses any ideas of business they are apt to be impractical or visionary.

This class of men always have a following because there are a mass of people who feel that they are oppressed or abused, and they are always on the alert for some Moses to lead them out of the wilderness.

The labor agitator may not own the suit on his back, and yet people flock to his standard, regardless of consequence or results.

The political leader who advances radical and impractical reform, fascinates a large following, as did Bryan on his free silver craze.

It is not surprising that Wisconsin should be led away by a lot of sophistries, advanced under the guise of reform, but it is unfortunate for the state, that the men selected to represent the people in the assembly should be satisfied to ignore the wishes of their constituency, and blindly follow an idolized leader. Sublime ignorance may be excusable under some circumstances, but more intelligence and independence is expected of legislators.

IRON AND STEEL IMPORTS

The importation of iron and steel which has characterized the last year shows no signs of abatement. The value of iron and steel imports in the month of March, as shown by figures in the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, amounted to over $1,000,000, against about $2,000,000 in March of last year, and for the nine months ending with March, amounted to over $35,000,000, against less than $19,000,000 in the corresponding months of last year.

Curiously, all of the more important articles so imported are those of which the United States is a large producer. The United States is now by far the largest pig iron producer of the world, having last year produced more of this article than the United Kingdom, and Germany combined, her production having practically doubled since 1897. Yet the importations of iron and steel during the fiscal year which is to end with next month will be double, in value, those of 1897, and four times those of 1899.

The three classes of articles which show the largest increase of pig iron, steel rails, and ignots, blooms, and billets of steel. Pig iron shows an increase from 76,725 tons in 9 months of last year to 725,270 in the same months of this year, or nearly ten times as much this year as last, despite the fact that production is still increasing. In ignots, blooms, bars, etc., the increase is still more rapid, the total importation in the 9 months of last year being 41,370,209 pounds, and in the 9 months of this year, 657,597,319 pounds. In steel rails of which the United States has in the past not only supplied her own wants, but exported largely, the percentage of increase is still larger, the imports of the 9 months of last year, having been but 3,262 tons, while those of this year for the same month were 92,559 tons, or nearly 30 times as much. The value of the pig iron imported in the first 9 months of this fiscal year is 12,615,000, against 1,925,558 in the same months of last year, that of ignots, blooms, etc., $7,551,374, against $1,424,130 last year, and of steel rails $2,181,157, against $55,172 last year.

GAME WARDENS ACCOUNTS.

A bill is now pending in the senate which provides for the itemized expense account of game wardens. This is a wholesome measure, and merits careful investigation. A fund of some $70,000 contributed by a limited number of people for gun licenses, is the public crib at which these worthless feed.

The statement is belated over the state by friends of the administration that the people say nothing for the support of this political urean, as it is self-sustaining, something like the mill tax, and oil inspection fund. It never occurs to them that this license money could go into the treasury to reduce taxes, if not paid out to a lot of travelling delegates.

There was a great deal of criticism during the campaign about the pernicious activity of game wardens, and this criticism was well founded. It is well that the people of the state should know how these gentlemen spent their time and money. It may be possible to reduce the force and save expense.

Fourth of July to the Chicago boy will lose its charms this year. The school board has decided that the fire cracker must go, but a substitute has been provided in the shape of a choice selection of patriotic declamations. The boys are recommended to get up at four o'clock in the morning, and declaim for half an hour from the front veranda. This means a stream of oratory from Randolph street to Hyde Park. Fire works will be restored next year.

The council cannot afford to act hastily in disposing of the stone crusher plant. While there is more or less oilum connected with it, yet the city has invested money in it and it is possible to run it to good advantage. The stone at the quarry, is as good for foundation work as can be procured anywhere, but it is totally unfit for top dressing. Use Janesville stone and cover it with Devil's Lake flint, and there will be no complaint about the quality of the work.

A majority of the assembly is so thoroughly in subjection, that a hearing was denied one railway company on the maximum freight bill. This is a breach of courtesy, and reflects no credit upon an intelligent organization. It was a business proposition and there are two parties to the contract. The senate will not be guilty of this same high handed policy.

The governor of Pennsylvania, has signed a libel law, that practically muzzles the press of the state. Senator Quay is said to be the instigator. He may have occasion to regret the manner in which his name has been used, but he has made a mistake in placing a gag upon the state press, and it will wait on him in a way that will not be pleasant.

The post office investigation brings out the fact that the department has been sending out circulars to mail order houses, giving a list of patrons on rural routes. It is about time some changes were made in the department, and public sentiment will heartily endorse the efforts of postmaster general Payne along this line.

The only republican daily paper in the state that finds every thing to commend and nothing to condemn, in the governor, is the Milwaukee organ. The Oshkosh Northwestern is the last to forsake him. There are a few country weeklies that are still color blind.

PRESS COMMENT

La Crosse Press: The governor has rather the best of the shippers in his bill prohibiting an increase in freight rates. It is hardly likely the shippers will interest themselves in defeating that proposition.

Neenah Times: The Northwestern university professor at Chicago asserts that they "don't know the difference between poker and eucher." They should make a visit to Oshkosh and get brushed up on cardology.

Milwaukee Wisconsin: By raising the price of strawboard from $18.10 per ton to $22 per ton in one year, the strawboard trust has not convinced the box makers and those who purchase boxes that combinations are not effected chiefly for the purpose of effecting economy.

Chicago Record-Herald: In many households it is felt that John Chinaman should now be entrusted with the "white man's burden"—on the condition that he gives it back again in a renovated condition on Saturday night.

Toronto Mail and Empire: The meanest man in Chicago has been found. He robbed the toy bank of his child. Why didn't the scoundrel pick out a bank of his own size?

Brooklyn Eagle: Graduates of our public schools may know a heap about sociology, Roman history and geometry, but they cannot spell the English language. What's the matter?

Omaha World-Herald: Mr. Baer may not know it, but there are others in the United States who are tired of these people who "dream" that they represent the Creator, and who imagine that they are trustees of God ordained to control the property and wealth of the country.

Madison Journal: The state Journal believes there is some merit in the proposition to create a commission to supervise transportation rates. The bill introduced authorizing the appointment of such a commission was defeated by an overwhelming vote in the assembly. Clearly the people heard from and the members of the assembly did not wish that particular bill to become a law.

Appleton Post: The Milwaukee Journal says: "The red robin sings the pleasing information that Charles Barber, president of the Oshkosh Times company, is making a gubernatorial bee very comfortable in his bonnet. Mr. Barber is a democrat from way up the forks of the creek. Well, as the witty catholic once said to his protestant disputant, who pooh poohed the idea of purgatory, the democratic party might go farther and fare worse" than to make Chas. Barber its next gubernatorial nominee.

AGATHA REICHLIN'S BODY IS EXHUMED

Doctors Settle Question As to Whether or Not Discolorations Occurred Before Death.

Leland, O., May 13.—The remains of Agatha Reichlin were exhumed at the Catholic cemetery, one mile north of Ellyria, in order to settle the question raised as to whether the young woman had been choked, as well as struck with a stone on the head. The body was found to be well preserved. Discolorations were found on the right wrist and upon the neck and a dark blue tinge was perceptible beneath the right eye. After a conference the physicians decided to make openings in the neck and beneath the eye, to discover, if possible, whether these marks were caused by choking or blows before death, or by the action of impeded blood drainage thereafter.

At the conclusion of the examination Coroner French said that the marks found were the same he had seen at the post mortem, but that at this time it was impossible to say how they had been caused. He added that he was not prepared to say that he would reopen the inquest, but that his decision on this point would be announced later.

Old-Time Architecture

At Stratford-on-Avon, while the stucco was being removed from a house in High street, a fine example of Tudor architecture was discovered says the Illustrated London News. The house had been originally three-storied, and in the two upper stories, which are of the usual maple type, the design of the woodwork is both beautiful and unique.

These stories are overhanging and are supported by oak story posts carved in the early renaissance style. The molding above the ruffled head, which is probably a crest, is early Tudor and beneath it appear Tudor roses. The pillars of the other story posts are carved with acanthus leaves and roses. Under the ground floor some carved stones, evidently parts of window tracery, thirteenth century style and were probably taken from the old Church of the Holy Cross, which was pulled down about the end of the fifteenth century. Early in the nineteenth century the house was "beautified" by the stucco covering, which has now happily disappeared. The entire building is being restored by an anonymous benefactor.

UNNAMED MAN MAY BUILD WAREHOUSE

Janesville Projector Makes Proposition to La Crosse Board of Control—To Handle Much Tobacco.

A meeting of the board of trade, says the La Crosse Chronicle, will consider the proposition of a Janesville man to erect a tobacco warehouse here which will, the first year, handle $100,000 worth. The Janesville man, who at present requests that his name be kept quiet in connection with the affair, sought to have the city furnish him with a site and a factory to cost about $5,000. When informed that this would be impossible and that the board might furnish the site alone, the projector signed an agreement to erect the factory if the site were furnished.

MEN MAY BE LOCKED OUT

BELOIT LABOR DIFFICULTIES BECOMING MORE COMPLEX.

THE CRISIS EXPECTED SOON

Two Separate Problems—Strike at Berlin Works—Impending Strike at Fairbanks-Morse.

All of the city of Beloit is up in the air on the strike question. No one is authorized to give the attitude to which the employers will take, while the workmen have reached no conclusions regarding their course. At the Berlin works the situation is practically unchanged. The Fairbanks-Morse employees will decide tonight whether to strike or not. A person who is on the inside stated today that the company would lock out the men before they have time to decide to strike.

Perhaps a Lock-Out
It is said that the payroll is made out up to this evening and that the foremen of all departments have been given notice to leave as little unfinished work tonight as possible. This is taken to mean that the company will begin a siege today or tomorrow which will drive hundreds of workmen from the city in search of employment, and probably bring suffering to many who will remain here.

Can Afford to Stop
Never in the history of the works has there been so good an opportunity to close down. Orders have been filled far in advance. For months every man who applied for a position has been taken on, and the result is a great quantity of machinery on hand to fill future orders. The company has felt that it has been the loser by recent union agitation and is now ready, so it is said, to make a decisive light on the matter.

At Berlin Works
The Berlin strikers are holding daily meetings in their hall, while the works are strongly picketed. Their grievances have nothing to do with those of the workmen at the Fairbanks-Morse plant. The latter will meet this evening to determine whether or not to strike.

Telegraph-Pole Industry

Between Chicago and Denver, a distance of 1,050 miles, along one line of railway, there are 31,500 telegraph poles, says Arboriculture. They are set 175 feet apart, or thirty to a mile. As there are considerable more than 2,000,000 miles of steam railway in the United States, increasing in mileage each year, and many roads have double lines of poles to accommodate the great number of wires required to transmit the telegraphic business of the country, there are 8,000,000 poles in use on railway lines.

When to this is added the poles used by trolley lines and by telegraph and telephone companies we find an aggregate of 15,000,000 poles in use. If these should be replaced at once it would require 250,000 flat cars to transport them; 8,000 locomotives would be necessary to haul the trains, which if continuous would reach 1,750 miles. If the poles were placed end to end they would reach more than three times around the earth at the equator.

Hats Made of Rice Straw

According Col. S. F. B. Morse, general traffic manager of the Southern Pacific railroad, the Japanese colony at Port Lavaca will establish a plant for the manufacture of matting and hats from rice straw, says a writer in the New Orleans Times-Democrat. The Japanese are the pioneer rice growers of the world, and cultivate the staple on a more scientific basis than the American farmer. In Japan every product of the rice crop is utilized to some purpose, while in the United States the planter relies entirely upon the rice proper for his income.

"The Japanese of Port Lavaca," said will soon begin the manufacture of Japanese matting and the finest of hats from rice straw, and it is only a question of time till our rice planters in Texas and Louisiana will take up this industry thus making the south the center of supply for matting and straw hats of the finest texture and manufacture. The best matting in the world are made in Japan, while the high grades of rice straw hats are known the world over. There are several kinds of grass growing along the gulf, so the Japanese tell me, that can be utilized for making matting of a good grade. They tell me it is identical with that used in Japan for this purpose, and there is no reason why this should not become a paying industry in Louisiana and Texas."

"When Knighthood Was in Flower"
The incidental music of Effie Ellsler's production of "When Knighthood Was in Flower" is an interesting feature of the play. The songs have been resurrected from obscure sources bearing on the manners and customs of sixteenth century life. The air to which the Princess Mary Tudor dances in the first act when she takes a lesson in "the new step of France," with Charles Brandon as her instructor, is "The Sailor Lass," a song popular among people of high and low degree during the opening years of Henry VIII's reign. Another quaint ballad.

FULTON
Fulton, May 14.—The Fulton Ladies "Shakespeare club" very delightfully entertained a few of their gentlemen friends at the home of Misses Marion Barber and Nellie Bentley, on Tuesday evening. Mr. D. F. Sayre gave a very able paper on the life of Wm. Shakespeare. Music was rendered by Miss Hattie Lee and Miss Nellie Bentley. A toast was given to the men by the hostess in substance, that the ladies should love, honor and obey their husbands. This toast was fully responded to by Rev. A. A. Wood who said "that if this sentiment of 'obeying your husbands' was being installed into the wives at the club he for one was with the ladies heart and hand, but that this honoring and obeying your husbands must have just been taken up by the club as he had not noticed any marked change in his better half, who is a prominent club woman." A toast was then tendered the ladies, which was replied to by County Superintendent Hemingway in his pleasing way. Dainty refreshments were then served by the ladies and a souvenir quotation card was laid at each plate one of which was "as the ill-walled town is more worthy than a village, so is the forehead of a married man more honorable than the bare brow of a bachelor," which goes to show that no matter how inclusive the ladies club may be, man is the predominating element in their mind. All that were privileged to be there went home feeling that they had spent a most pleasant and enjoyable evening, and we men heartily second a vote of thanks to the S. club and hope it may long live, and when they so feel, they will again invite us to another pleasant evening with them. Miss Evelyn Pearson was chosen as delegate from our C. E. to attend the C. E. convention to be held in Janesville May 15, 16, and 17. County Superintendent was a caller in town on Tuesday.

AGNES TRUESDELL

written after the marriage of Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk, to Mary Tudor, has a refrain running: "Cloth of gold do not despise, Though you're matched with cloth of frieze."

It is sung by Will Sommers, poet-jester to King Henry, as the curtain falls on the last act.

Another interesting piece of music is that sung by priests who in the first scene of the last act chant a requiem for the repose of the soul of Louis XII, king of France, who has just died among the revelries of a fall in the Palais des Tournoilles. The original manuscript of this chant is among the treasures of the Vatican library, and was transcribed for Miss Ellsler by a member of the American college at Rome to whom she expressed a desire for a requiem dating about 1512. The care for historical detail displayed upon such a matter has been maintained as regards every point in this production. Days were spent in studying heraldic devices and insignia used on furniture and draperies. Knotty problems were come upon. Often reference was made to half a dozen volumes before it could be decided whether the roses of the House of Tudor or the garter and its accompanying motto of "Honi soit mal y pense" should be embroidered on the tapestries of the palace interiors, the idea being that the year 1512, in which the scene is supposed to transpire, might have been a little subsequent to the use of the Tudor rose as an official emblem, or perhaps the "Honi soit" motto had not been adapted for decorative purposes at that time.

The complete outfit costs but $1.00, and consists of a neat inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomel. If one bottle does not cure, extra bottles of Hyomel can be obtained for 50c.

A Trained Nurse Speaks Out
Trained nurses as a rule are a fine lot of women, and if they were men, would make magnificent soldiers. They are trained to obey to the minutest detail, and it is seldom one can be got to express an opinion of any remedy, being content to carry out the physicians orders. Speaking on the subject, one of the best known nurses of Pittsburg, Pa., said: "I only recall one case where I felt called upon to speak right out and tell the doctors what I thought. I had been called in to attend an old lady suffering with constipation, and whose enfeebled condition precluded the use of castor, rhubarb, licorice or other powerful purgatives. The doctors were giving the patients large doses of olive oil without any appreciable result. I insisted on Red Raven Spills, knowing that as a laxative, though mild, it was exceedingly sure. To my delight the doctors, after consultation, prescribed a bottle every morning for three mornings. A prompt change came over the patient and in a few days she was relieved. This is the only experience I ever had with Red Raven Spills in a critical illness, but in a number of mild attacks of constipation, torpid liver, headache and biliousness, I have known them to bring quick relief."

All drugs stores and bars keep Red Raven Spills—a sparkling mineral water in half-pint bottles. Price 15c.

"D. D. D.," the astonishingly effective new

Skin disease prescription

Eczema, Salt Rheum, Barbers' Itch, Erysipelas—all eruptions, scaly diseases and parasitic affections of the skin positively cleared away in a hurry. A clean, pleasant liquid (non-greasy) externally applied—sponged or sopped over the parts. Instantly stops all irritation. Soon clears out absolutely all affected conditions.

(Here is a case cleared away with two bottles.)

(Case of daughter of Mr. Moss Hartman, permanently cured of a bad skin disease after two bottles only of this D. D. D. prescription.)

We vouch for these facts.

They have been proven to us beyond the possibility of doubt.

People's Drug Co., Geo. E. King & Co.

Some weeks ago the astonishing record of this prescription—proven to us by indisputable evidence—induced us to give our unqualified recommendation to the public. Since then D. D. D. has cured so many who obtained it from us that its record with us has been fully equal to its previous history. We have not seen a single instance of disappointment. It seems to do the work every time. In many cases out of ten, the skin skin are skin diseases—no blood diseases. Many purchasers formerly miserable, thinking they had a bad blood disease, have found it was merely a skin affection and have cleared it all away with this prescription.

Among all the known reliable specific medical influences for different ailments, we know of very few discoveries so certain in effect as this D. D. D. prescription in its quick conquest of skin diseases of all kinds.

A FEW CURES OF WELL-KNOWN PARTIES.

Chicago, April 2, 1902.
"Almost six months ago my daughter began getting sores all over her body and was gradually getting worse. Nothing seemed to do her any good, although we tried different medicines, but without success. She would scratch continually and was a sight to look at. I was asked to try a bottle of your D. D. D. remedy, which I did, and to my surprise it worked wonders on her the second day, and before the bottle was empty she was almost cured. The second bottle completely cured her. I will highly recommend your remedy to any one suffering with skin diseases; the fact is I cannot say enough for it."

Wishing you every success I am, yours very truly,
F. KLINGLIMMER, 2001 Fillmore Street, Southern Exposure Co.

"I am glad to say that the bottle of medicine furnished by you in July last has done great benefit to me. I am now free from the annoyance heretofore suffered from Eczema on my ankles. I have also cured a friend of mine who had two or three years on his face."

W. J. FOOTNER, St. Paul, Minn. Vice President and General Manager of Great Northern Express Co.

"That wonderful discovery, the D. D. D. remedy, cured me of a bad case of Eczema of long standing, which the physicians could not cure. I cheerfully recommend it to all persons afflicted with any kind of skin disease."

C. H. WOODWARD, (Ex-Mayor), Cairo, Ill.

The preparation is being used by most of the skin specialists. It is compounded for drugists solely by the D. D. D. Company, 70 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

It is utilized by every general family physician who has taken the trouble to investigate the work it is accomplishing.

It is used in the Cook County Hospital, Chicago.

It will clear off any parasitic break in the skin in from 3 days' to 60 days' time. If you have a skin disease visit the above agents and see proofs that will make you a happier human being.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, May 15, 1863.—Prisoners exchanged all officers and enlisted men delivered at City Point up to the 6th of May have been exchanged. This will put the 22nd Wisconsin regiment again in the field.

Hurdle Race.—This entertainment comes off at the fair grounds tomorrow afternoon. It will afford an opportunity for the display of the horsemanship of the riders who are occasionally prancing the streets of the city with their well kept steeds.

A telegram from Washington states that the first negro regiment in that district now numbers nearly 500 volunteers and that they will be speedily inspected and mustered in.

LAW DECISIONS

FOR LAYMEN

Recent Court Rulings Will Interest the Busy Reader Very Much.

Restraining Action Brought in Another State

Will the courts of one state, having jurisdiction over the person of a defendant, enjoin him from bringing or prosecuting an action in another state? Generally speaking, they will, when, by so doing, more complete justice can be done between the parties. In Locomobile Company, of America, vs. American Bridge Company, 59 New York Supplement, 258, such an injunction was granted by the court. It being convinced, in view of the circumstances of the case, that better justice could be done in New York than Connecticut. The question at best is one of policy, and the propriety of exercising this power, when its exercise interferes with the courts of independent states, has been the cause of much difference of opinion.

Contract of Husband and Wife to Live Together

A husband was sued for divorce, and in consideration of his wife's foregoing their differences and becoming reconciled and living with him, promised to convey certain land to trustees for the benefit of his children. The wife discontinued her divorce suit and lived with her husband. On the husband's refusal to convey the property, the wife and the children by their guardian brought suit for specific performance. Held, that such a conveyance would be decreed by the court. 72 Southwestern Rep. (Kentucky) 53.

Forfeiture of Smuggled Goods

Plaintiff, a jewelry merchant living in Antwerp, Belgium, was induced by fraudulent representations to sell diamonds to H. The diamonds were seized by customs officers while H was attempting to smuggle them across the border at Detroit into the United States. Plaintiff tendered the amount paid him by H because of a fraud, and to reclaim the diamonds from the government. Held, that plaintiff could not recover the diamonds. He court admits the hardship, to the plaintiff, but says, "to permit secret claims of partnership to be asserted after forfeiture would be in plain violation of the written law."—119 Federal Rep. (Michigan) 556.

Accident Insurance — Contributory Negligence

A passenger on a vestibuled train was not guilty of contributory negligence in passing from his car into the dining car when the train was moving at full speed, so as to defeat recovery on an accident policy issued on his life. The evidence showed that he was thrown from the train through one of the side doors of the vestibule, which was open, and killed, and it was not shown that he knew, or ought to have known that the door was open. 94 Northwestern Rep. (Michigan, Judge Grant) 211.

Railroads — Liability for Surrender of Game

The supreme court of Minnesota held, in the recent case of the Northern Pacific Express Co. vs. Graham, that a carrier is required to use discretion in receiving game for shipment, and that if it delivers game to the authorities on claim of contraband, when it is not such, the company is liable to the consignor for the value of the property wrongfully delivered.

SCHMIDT CLAIMS STRIKES ARE CAUSED BY MICROBES

Infectious Disease is Epidemic in America, Declares Labor Commissioner and Overruns the World. Health boards instead of arbitration boards may have to deal with the labor problem if the belief of B. Frank Schmidt, president of the Indiana state labor commission, is correct. Schmidt was recently in Hammond, Ind., investigating labor troubles, announced that the present epidemic of strikes is due to a germ.

"The disease," says Schmidt, "travels in cycles, and is at present overrunning the world. After getting in its deadly work in the United States it has traveled with frightful rapidity to Holland, Austria, Germany, and even Australia."

Commissioner Schmidt intimated that the germ was particularly active in Chicago, and that the water ought to be boiled. The discovery is likely to upset all former theories on the causes of strikes. Most students of economics have held that strikes were always plentiful in times of prosperity, and were largely due to the workers taking advantage of the good demand for their services to secure better wages. The disease germ, according to Schmidt, is most active in warm weather, when the sun is beating down on both sides of the street at one time, and the shade trees in the parks are particularly inviting.

A profitable business has been carried on for some time past in several of the border counties of Kansas, in running slaves of traitors to their former owners. Leavenworth having been the headquarters of the persons engaged in these operations.
